COMMACK, NY (August 5, 2020)— Gemini Pharmaceuticals, a 38 year old contract manufacturer of dietary supplements and OTC pharmaceuticals, today announced their in-house analytical laboratory has achieved International Standard ISO/IEC 17025:2017 accreditation for Testing Laboratory from ANSI National Accreditation Board (ANAB).

“Our Quality Control laboratory achieving ISO 17025 accreditation underscores the commit Gemini has to providing the highest quality supplements to our customers. Not many 3rd party testing laboratories and very few in house laboratories have achieved ISO 17025 Testing Accreditation.” stated Mike Finamore, Chief Executive Officer of Gemini. He added, “We rely on our laboratory to provide accurate, timely test results of our raw materials and finished products. This demonstrates Gemini’s dedication to quality from start to finish, the expertise of our staff, and the strength of our quality systems.”
